

Last Call for Abstracts to the 13th International Conference on Reliability, Maintainability, and Safety (ICRMS2022)

The deadline to submit abstract is 25 June 2022

We are still accepting abstract-only submission and hope that you will join this event that is run in conjunction with a high-level HK Tech Forum on Reliability and Safety of Intelligent Systems. An Editor's Roundtable is also arranged with presentations by editor-in-chief of almost all major reliability/safety journals.

Please submit your abstract before 25 June to receive the acceptance before the early bird registration deadline 01 July.
